EXPERIENCE

Co-Expert/Writer/Editor/Podcaster, Rox Pile, July 2017-present

- I am the co-expert for FanSided's Colorado Rockies website, Rox Pile, which is one of only a handful of "blogs" that hold a press credential with an MLB team. We have surpassed site highs in page views nearly every month I have been with Rox Pile, including doubling the site's previous page view high for a month in six different months. I have written between 20 and 60 articles per month for the site as well as edited up to 30 a month from our contributors. We also launched a podcast called the "Rox Pile Rockies Report." Through Rox Pile, among other things, I have learned how to use WordPress, run a large social media account, HTML, and Baseball Reference's functions for a website, transcribe audio, and interview front office personnel, players, coaches, managers, and alumni.

Percussion Instructor, Perkins High School Marching Band, May 2016-present

- I have been one of the percussion instructors at Perkins High School for marching season for the past four years. I mainly instruct students in the front ensemble that do not march but also help instruct the drumline as well. They have qualified for State Marching Band Finals for the past three years and earned a I rating (the best possible rating) at their State Marching Band Finals Performance in 2019.

Co-Host, 88.1 FM WBGU, August 2017-May 2018

- I was the co-host (along with Leo Goldman) of a radio show on 88.1 WBGU-FM called Hit and Run that was broadcast for two hours weekly. We exclusively spoke about Major League Baseball.

Production Director, Bowling Green Radio Sports Organization, April 2017-May 2018

- I created promos and station IDs for the Bowling Green Radio Sports Organization for the games that the organization broadcast. I also edited and created highlight reels for the games that we broadcast.

Writer, isportsworld.com, April 2017-August 2017

- I wrote articles on the Cleveland Indians, Colorado Rockies, Arizona Diamondbacks, and Milwaukee Brewers twice a week.

Color Analyst/Sideline Reporter, ESPN3, August 2016-December 2017

- I provided color analysis and sideline reports for select ESPN3 broadcasts for volleyball, men's basketball, and women's basketball.

Play-by-Play Broadcaster/Color Analyst/Studio Host and Analyst/Board Operator, Bowling Green Radio Sports Organization, August 2016-May 2018

- I provided play by play and color commentary on numerous baseball, volleyball, men's basketball, women's basketball, and football games. Additionally, I was a studio host and analyst for football, hockey, men's basketball, and women's basketball. I also was a board operator for football, men's basketball, women's basketball, volleyball, and hockey.
